Read the following passage and choose the correct answer

On a cold day in winter, a woman was walking home when she noticed a snake lying on the other side of the road. It was hardly moving and was obviously dying of cold. The woman took off her scarf, wrapped the snake and went home. There, she put the snake, wrapped in the scarf, next to the cooker where it would get warm and start showing signs of life.

Slowly, the snake's body became warm and it left the scarf and started exploring the kitchen, looking for something to eat. The woman found some food for it and the snake quickly finished the food and returned to the scarf next to the cooker.

The days went by and the snake fully recovered. The weather remained cold, so the woman didn't have the heart to put the snake outside again. She got used to having the snake around and taking care of it.

One day when the woman was busy cooking her lunch, a pain shot through her leg and she dropped the pan of oil she was holding. She looked down at her foot and saw two small holes. The snake had bitten her. She turned to the snake and cried, "How could you bite me, when I've always been so good to you? Now, I'm going to die."

The snake seemed to smile at her as it replied, "You knew my nature when you brought me here, so why are you complaining now?"
